
Pre-School Activities

In the pictures above you can observe some of the pre-school activities during the summer session now in process at the Appomattox Primary School.

Activities include a balance between active and quiet learning experiences. In the top photo the children are shown using a parachute to execute the "Merry-Go-Round" and in the bottom photo the children are using plastic hoops for the development of muscular coordination.

One hundred twenty-four students are enrolled in the Title I Summer Program that will continue until July 24th.

Thank You From Pine View Rest Home

I would like to thank the Rev. L. L. Schwemer and his Bible Class for the Bible stand given Pine View Rest Home. He couldn't have given a better gift and we thank him and his class. A special thanks to Rev. Earnie Lucas for his message last Thursday evening and to the Gideons for their message every Thursday evening. Also thanks for the string beans from Mrs. Russell Moon of Appomattox County. They will be used and everyone will enjoy them very much.

I would also like to thank everyone in the community for being so nice to all the patients at Pine View. May God bless each of you.

Our doors are always open and we invite you to stop by for a visit whenever you can.

Marie Tyler, Prop.

Who Will Be Miss Appomattox Dixie Youth?

One of these attractive young Appomattox County girls will be named "Miss Appomattox County Dixie Youth Queen" on Saturday night, July 7th.

The announcement of the name of the winner in the contest will be made at the intermission of the World Ball game at the end of the first game of a double-header scheduled for that night.

Jack Massie, President of the Appomattox County Dixie Youth Association, will crown the new queen.

Also in past years, the winner was determined by the number of votes she gets and you can still vote for the candidate of your choice for a penny a vote. All proceeds will go to help the Appomattox County Dixie Youth Association continue with its fine sports program.

Miss Cindy Roach, last year's queen will participate in the ceremonies.

The contestants this year represent the Major League teams are: Debbie Edmonds, the Giants, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Edmonds of Appomattox; Teresa Litchford, the Braves, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Litchford of Appomattox; Glenda Doss, the Orioles, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doss; Shelby Dunnam, Miss Yankees, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunnam of Spout Spring; Debbie Roach, Miss Reds, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aulden Roach of Appomattox; and Sherrie Harris, Cubsville, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harris.

At the end of the second game on Saturday night, the All Stars will be named.

Modernistic Herald News

Very interesting club meeting held Friday, June 29th, at the home Holmes'. All who attended enjoyed the meeting. The very delicious repast was served first to the club members and after that, the regular business meeting was held. Following the business period the game "Bingo" was played by the members. Those receiving prizes were Ms. Josephine Webb first, Ms. Elie Mae second, and third prize was won by Ms. Hester Smith. The prizes were useful as well as beautiful.

The meeting adjourned until next year, when the members will meet with president Hamilton as resident.

The surprise audience turned out at Galilee Baptist Church for the regular preaching service. Rev. Lawing was blessed with an excellent message. The subject for discussion "Have You Been to the Cross Lately?" The message was well explained, and all who attended were greatly benefited.

Special music was rendered by the senior choir. The offering for the morning worship service was Ms. Bessie Watson who received the sum of $18.00 for the Friday Rally.

It was learn that the following members are on the sick list at present: sister Mary C. Young and Deacon Hobert Young. We trust that these faithful members shall very soon be out again. We miss them very much, May God bless them soon.

It was learned that Sister Armeda Hamilton's mother is improving in the hospital and will soon be home again.
